The Pink City Painted Blue

- Months of intense research and in-depth analysis into scientific parameters finally culmin ated into a Celebration of the Champions Within.
- A commemoration of mindset, bravado and diligence it takes to become a polo champion.

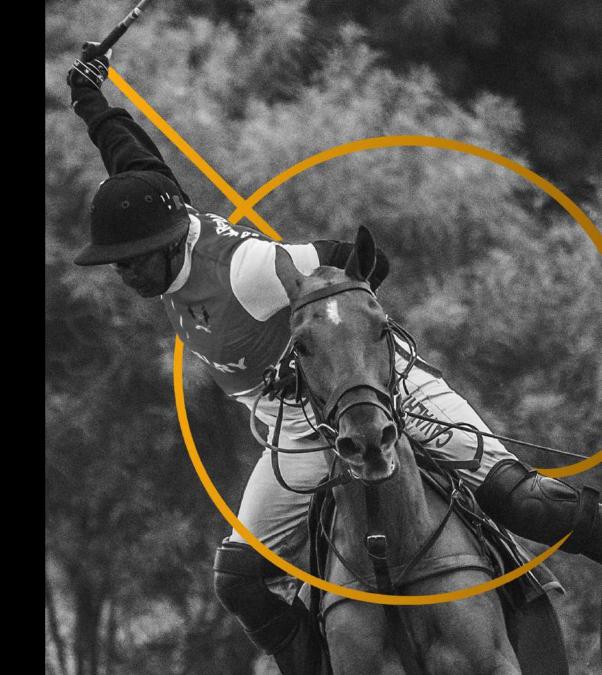

The grand invite only gala and awards were visually explored using numerous social media and other platforms.

Explored the various champions universally and the India mallet-whizzes who completely changed the game in their unique way.

Narratively described the virtues that make the champions physically and mentally master their craft.

Editorial style imagery post event showcasing the array of champions.

A STATUETTE OF INFINITY

Deliberating the need to laud excellence in sportsmanship and honor outstanding calibre within the polo fraternity, the creative genius of the House of MBJ took form in the golden statuette of TIPA.

The golden statuette of a three dimensional mallet and ball constructed within the infinity sign was then placed on a semi-pyramid structure of royal blue and gold tiled showcasing the champion titles.

The intentional 'E' shape constructed on the mallet alongside the blue and gold tile symbolizes the painstaking journey it takes to become a polo champion.

The colors were chosen as a homage to the relationship between blue-blooded and noble past along with its consistent attributes of dignity, courage and sportsmanship.

To felicitate the legends both on the pitch and behind the scenes 17 trophies were presented on the night of February, 2021.

A witness to the age-old conversations and tete-a-tetes surrounding the sport, the Jaipur City Palace served as the perfect venue to honor polo legends.

The ornately fashioned walls and laboriously fabricated rooms alongside its fabulously Rajputana decor served as the perfect location for polo games and after events in the bygone years.

It's gates housed HH Sawai Man Singh 2 of Jaipur who heralded the torch of polo for India during the 50's and 60's and years later houses the young promising player HH Sawai Padmanabh Singh.

Thus it served as the model stepping stone into the new era of polo and for the foundations of the Indian polo
